

Joint Conference on the Greek Revolution/ War

Co-organised by

Freie University – New York University – Research Centre for the Humanities

PROGRAMME

SATURDAY, NYU BERLIN:

Coffee and introduction: 9:00-10:00

European Diplomacy, 10:00-12:00

Karin Schneider: Discussion paper on the concert of Europe and the Greek uprising; additional paper on the on-line texts of the congresses

Ada Dialla: "The Congress of Vienna: A History of the old and the new from a Russian Perspective"

Lunch, 12:00-14:00

Prerevolution Locally, 14:00-16:00

Kostas Sarris: [Pre-Revolutionary Non-Revolutionary Revolutions]

Anna Vlachopoulou: [Why then and there? The Morea before 1821]

Money, 16:30-18:30

Korinna Schoenhaerl: "Bankers' decision taking in challenging political circumstances: The Greek loan for the struggle for independence of 1825 "

Yanni Kotsonis, Oral comments on the resources of the War of Independence

SUNDAY, FREIE UNIVERSITY:

Coffee, 9:00-10:00

Ottoman Contexts, 10:00-12:00

Tolga Esmer: “War, State, and the Privatization of Violence in the Ottoman Empire”

Dimitris Dimitropoulos: “The story of sailboat Ayios Ioannis Theologos in the summer of 1825. An investigation of limits.”

Lunch, 12:00-13:00

The Revolution/War I, 13:00-15:00

Pissis: [Mavrogordatos]

Miltos Pechlivanos: « Adamantios Korais (Smyrna 1748–Paris 1833), philhellène à sa manière »

The Revolution/War II, 15:30 – 17:30

Lilia Diamatopoulou: [Fake News, Fake Prophecies, 1820s]

Dimitris Kousouris: “Sira nostra patria”: The Catholic community of Syros during the Greek revolution (1821-1830).