

Workshop: "Toward 1821"

London, 13 October, 2018

NYU Global Research Initiatives

Co-Sponsored by

Queen Mary University in London, School of History

and

Research Centre for the Humanities (RCH), Athens

Hosted by NYU in London

*6 Bedford Square
London WC1B 3RA*

PROGRAMME

9:30: Light Breakfast

10:00-11:30: Law

Giuseppe Grieco, "Constitution-writing and Imperial governance. The Ionian Islands and the British Mediterranean order 1812-1821"

Will Smiley, "Sovereignty, Islamic Law, and the Greek War of Independence."

11:40-1:30: Conjunctures

Nikolas Pissis, "On the Crisis preceding 1821".

Ada Dialla, "Revolutionary Princes in the Battlefields of the Greek War for Independence: Demetrios Ypsilantis"

Sakis Gekas, "Spontaneous Desire? British Colonialism and Ionian Nationalism in the Age of Revolution and State Formation, 1810s-1830s."

NB: Working lunch from 12:30

1:40-4:30: Mediterranean Ripples

Andrew Arsan, "Refractions of Greece? Mount Lebanon and Palestine in the 1830s."

Peter Hill, "Mount Lebanon in the Age of Revolutions: Commoner Leagues and Pacts, 1800-1840."

Christos Aliprantis, "Coping against Revolution: Bureaucratic Control, Espionage Networks, and Transnational Police Cooperation across the Mediterranean, 1821-1862."

4:40-6:00: Mobilities (spilling into a wrap up till 6:30)

Maurizio Isabella, "Crossing the Mediterranean in the Age of Revolutions: the Multiple Mobilities of the 1820s"

Yanni Kotsonis, "Imperial Greeks: On the March for France since 1797"

7:00: Dinner for participants