

WORKSHOP

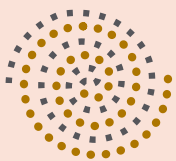

Children at war: humanitarian intervention and rescue policies in the late Ottoman Empire

The workshop will be held via Zoom

15 January 2022

16:30-20:00

In collaboration with KENI (Research Centre for Modern History-Panteion University),
Unit for the History of Migrant and Refugee Movements

RESEARCH
CENTRE for the HUMANITIES

This workshop is organized by Konstantina Andrianopoulou within the context of her research project “Contested futures: Greek-Ottoman refugee children and demographic engineering at the end of the Ottoman Empire (1914-1922)”, which is supported by the RESEARCH CENTRE FOR THE HUMANITIES (RCH) for the year 2021.